Explore Canada with Ease – Introducing the Canadian Temporary Residence Visa

At Kanjay Travels and Tours, we believe that travel should be accessible and enriching for everyone. As part of our commitment to making your travel dreams a reality, we are excited to introduce the Canadian Temporary Residence Visa, your key to experiencing the natural beauty, cultural diversity, and vibrant cities of Canada.

LET'S GET STARTED

PRE ITA  1
POST ITA  2

The first stage of the application process is the PRE ITA (Pre Invitation to Apply) stage. During this phase, you will be tasked with assessing your qualifications and Bank Statements through the relevant evaluation body associated with your credentials.

Here are some information you need to know to get started on your application.

- If you are between the ages of 18 and 50 with at least three years of verifiable work experience, then this opportunity is tailored just for you. Canada recognizes your exceptional skillset and values your contribution in addressing the immigration challenge.
- On average, the processing time typically extends to approximately 60 days following the completion of biometrics, but this duration may vary, either exceeding or falling short, contingent on the speed of progression through each phase and third-party resources like IRCC and ECA. All factors considered, it ideally should not exceed 60 days.
- In order to ascertain your proficiency in English speaking, writing, listening, and reading skills and to ensure a smooth settlement process in Canada, it is required that you take the IELTS examination. It is important to note that if English is your native language in your home country, you will be exempt from the IELTS examination.
- Securing a TRV allows you explore firsthand oppourtunities. By choosing a Canadian TRV, you not only access a wealth of employment possibilities but also embark on a journey toward personal and professional growth in one of the world's most welcoming and prosperous nations.
- If you're married, it's recommended to submit your application along with your spouse and children. If you're not married, that's fine, there's no particular benefit for being married.
- You'll need to establish a tie with your home country through a tie which sets the Canadian Visa application apart. Canada, wants to see that you have minimal ties to your country of origin.
- As part of your travel visa application process, you will be required to submit a Police Clearance Certificate. This certificate serves as an essential document to demonstrate your compliance with legal requirements and assures the authorities that you do not have any previous or criminal records.
Police Clearance Certificate, also known as a Police Check or Criminal Background Check, is a document issued by the law enforcement agencies of your home country or the relevant authorities. It provides an official declaration that there are no criminal offenses associated with your name.

What are we Offering you?

- 1 Complimentary IELTS courses designed to equip you for the examinations, ensuring optimal performance and enhancing your score for better score points during the application process.
- 2 Stressless counselling and application process during the Pre ITA and Post ITA periods
- 3 Accountability and Quick feedbacks on your application for you to be able to monitor the process easily
- 4 Ensure that the entire process takes as little time as can be guaranteed
- 5 Explore all provinces to get provincial nominations
- 6 Easy WES evaluation of university transcript from any school in Nigeria
- 7 Easy payment plans for the average salary earner
- 8 Give you peace of mind while we take on all the stress of getting you your Permanent Residency in Canada
- 9 Job placement upon Arrival

What we Require from you?

- Data Page of your International Passport
- A 6-month account statement with a minimum balance of 10 to 16 million for single applicants and 20 million or more for family packages
- Police Report
- Passport Photograph
- National Identification Number (NIN)

For Self-Employed Applicants:

- Employment or business documents, such as a Certificate of Incorporation (CAC) or recent invoices to validate ongoing self-employment
- Other supporting documents, such as proof of ownership of landed property, etc.

For Employed Individuals:

- Bank statement
- Curriculum Vitae (CV)
- Pay Slips
- Offer Letter
- Employee Identification Card (ID Card)
- Two reference phone numbers, for verification purposes
- Any additional documentation deemed necessary by the embassy or consulate, etc.

The visa we offer is typically long-term, spanning multiple years. The exact duration depends on the consular's discretion and the validity of your passport. What's truly remarkable about this visa is its versatility: you can utilize it to obtain a work permit or enroll in a study program of up to 6 months without the need for a separate study permit. The processing time for your application is a minimum of 60 days after submission. Additionally, it's worth noting that IELTS proficiency is not mandatory, unless your primary language of origin is not English.

At Kanjay, we take pride in our high success rate, though it's important to note that visa issuance ultimately rests with the consular authorities. Excitingly, these documents are conveniently included in our package plan, saving you time and effort. And if you already possess them, you have the option to opt out.
